FOREWORD

"There are persons who are always talking about preparing for life. The best way to prepare for life is to begin to live.

A school should not be a preparation; a school should be a life. Isolation from the world in order to prepare for the world's work is folly. You might as well take a boy out of the blacksmith shop in order to teach him blacksmithing.

From the age of fourteen and upward the pupil should feel that he is doing something useful, not merely killing time; and so his work and his instruction should go right along hand in hand."

DEDICATION

We, the Senior Class of 1959, wish to dedicate our yearbook, the Sojourn, to our friend and principal, Mr. Charles S. Randall, who through patience, sincerity, and understanding, has acquired the esteem and deference of each and every one of us.

We, the class of 1959, would like to express our deepest appreciation and heartfelt thanks to Mr. Homer Paulus for the help and understanding guidance which he has shown us during our high school career.

IN APPRECIATION

CLASS HISTORY

In '55, our group of 73 started the perilous trek into unknown territory. Mr. Homer Paulus and Mr. Lester Conners were hired as our guides. To keep us together, we elected Peter Yelle as our leader; John Crowe, next in command; Carol Ann Lajoie, recorder, to keep us in touch with the folks back home; and Sally Robbins, keeper of money and supplies. That year we were "fresh" and full of pep and started off with a one-act play, "Among Us Girls," for anyone who was interested. We also held a dance at a local hall to add to our growing funds. At Christmas time, we put on a Christmas Pageant for the people in the community.

In '56, we chose new leaders: John Crowe, head wagon master; Peter Yelle, second in command; Joan Hanley, recorder; and Marion Smith, keeper of the funds. Our number had, by this time, decreased to 58 due to many seeking other adventures and some joining the Coyle Group. We rehired Mr. Paulus as a guide and acquired a new guide, Mr. Clare Carlson. To augment our funds, we held many social events, all quite successful. We held our Christmas Pageant again on the strength of its success the year before. This year, as in the others, our party was joined by a few new adventurers.

The next year, we lost a few more passengers, reducing our number to 46. Peter Yelle was reinstated as leader; Carol Ann Lajoie was made second in command; Joan Hanley and Marion Smith returned to their former offices. We kept our faithful Mr. Paulus and also hired Miss Emmeline Loud as a guide. Again, we presented our well-known Christmas Pageant for the local community. We held many social events, but our biggest success of the year was the Prom. After many months of planning, we selected "Sunliner to Hawaii" as our theme.

During the final year of our sojourn, Mr. Conners rejoined Mr. Paulus and we kept the same leaders with the exception of Carol Ann Lajoie who was replaced by Joseph Willis. We held suppers, dances, skating parties, and presented a smash hit called, "Truth On a Holiday." In February, having a surplus of funds, we took a week "out of" our tight schedule and visited our nation's capitol.

On June 10th, after four work-filled and happy years, 39 of us reached our destination. The journey we had undertaken as a group had ended. Now, fortified by memorable experiences and strong friendships, we were ready for more hazardous trials.

JOURNEY'S END

Together we stand, yet each alone,
About to go our separate ways,
Looking ahead with eagerness
But remembering former days.

We have journeyed so far, must travel more;
Remember with thanks our school, my friends.
We may or may not meet again
Before our lengthy journey ends.

Our high school career, like many things,
Was valued too little, too late.
We realize its true worth now
And how it affects our fate.

Let's have a toast for old time's sake;
Let's "take a cup o' kindness yet."
Though time may dim our memories,
We will never quite forget.

PRINCIPAL'S MESSAGE

The publication of this Yearbook is a final school project of the Class of 1959. In the years to come, the pictures and contents will be of great enjoyment for they will recall memories with former classmates during some of the most carefree but valuable days of their lives.

Many have already given thought to their future. Graduation is the time when old friends separate and approach their respective stations in life. Your education will become the basis of your accomplishment and prosperity.

The automotive world requires a form of education which was formerly unknown and which you have had an opportunity to obtain. Prove your worth by qualifying in the open world, using to advantage what you have gained here.

The faculty and school staff wish you success in your endeavor. If you are willing to work both mentally and physically you will merit the approbation of all in the world's arena.

Charles S. Randall
Principal

SUPERINTENDENT'S MESSAGE

This Yearbook is an excellent example of the fine accomplishment that comes from a group of High School students who are working together for the best interest of our school. The editors and staff with their advisor, Miss Kiernan, are to be congratulated on this enterprise. I am sure that the kind of work displayed here is representative of the best kind of co-operation.

SENIOR CLASS TRIP

On Monday morning, February 23, at 9:15 A.M., the thirty-seven of us including our chaperons boarded the train in Attleboro and began our all day journey to Baltimore. Upon our arrival we were greeted by our bus driver, Ernie, who took us to the Annapolis Hotel in Washington, D.C. After getting ourselves settled we enjoyed an evening of fine food and entertainment at the Lotus Club.

Bright and early Tuesday morning, Ernie met us in front of the Hotel and took us on a tour of the Bureau of Printing and Engraving, Arlington Cemetery and Mt. Vernon. After dinner we toured the Capitol and the Smithsonian Institute. Before our evening meal at the Casino Royal, we visited the Lincoln and Jefferson Memorials, the Library of Congress, and the Archives.

ROWS 1-3, left to right: Phyllis Morin, Marylin Martin, Sue Soldat, Carol Murphy, Carol Ann Lajoie, Barbara Freedman, Bea Andrade, Marion Smith, Joan Hanley, Anita Mallon, Linda Boucher, Dave Robbins, Don Gagne, Arthur Courbron, Dick Cathcart, Mr. Connors, Mrs. Connors, Mrs. Paulus, Mr. Paulus, Joe Willis, Al Gilchrist, Dick Gove, Johnny Crowe, Pete Yelle, Richard Wing, Bob Eddleston, George Carter, Ernie, Cliff Wright, Bob Johnson, Joe Precourt, Leo Brochu, Jerry Geuvremont, Glen Hersey, Al LaPointe, Paul Tausek.

"Iwo Jima. "

"Honest Abe Lincoln. "

"Washington Monument and reflecting pool. "

"How can one make a Venician blind? Poke him in the eye. "

"Thomas Jefferson memorial. "

"Washington Monument. "

On the morning of February 25, our group visited the Washington monument, the F.B.I. building, and the White House. After lunch, and en route to Baltimore, the thirty-seven of us visited the Franciscan Monastery, Annapolis and finally reached the steamer.

After an all night cruise down the Chesapeake Bay, we met another bus driver, Wally, (we called him Rebel) who chauffeured us through historical Williamsburg, Yorktown and Jamestown. At night, we sailed back up the Chesapeake Bay on our yacht and boarded a train for New York City.

Friday afternoon in New York, we visited the R.C.A. building roof-top, and we had the rest of the day free. Friday night we watched a movie, "The Journey," and saw a stage show which included the "Rockettes" at the Radio City Music Hall.

Saturday was a free day for those who didn't take in the Tour of United Nations. At 4:45 P.M. we reported to the Hotel for our baggage and left for the train station. In an hour we were on our way home.

A good time was had by all and we would love to do it again.

"Uh! Marilyn!!!"

"The grew-some four."

"The queen of Sheba."

"Guess who?"

The Norton High School Star is our school newspaper and has done a wonderful job in the coverage of our class activities and school events. It is published once every term and is sold for fifteen cents per copy. The Gremlin is the most widely read portion of the paper and is enjoyed by all. We hope this fine policy of our paper will continue.

EVENTS

"The lineup"

JUNIOR- SENIOR PROM 1958

"Guests of Honor"

"The Grand March"

"Left! Right!"

"Right! Left!"

This year's Junior-Senior Prom was a great success. The theme was "Skyliner to Hawaii." Decorations included an authentic-looking grass hut and murals of Hawaiian scenes.

Guests and parents met the Faculty and Seniors in the Receiving Line and later Cynthia Winsor was chosen queen. Cynthia's attendants were Grace Lynch, Sally Robbins, Barbara Freedman, and Carol Ann Lajoie.

"Time out for refreshments."

"One at a time, please!"

"Having fun?"

"The Coronation"

"Long live Queen Cynthia!"

GET ACQUAINTED DANCE

"Getting ready for an evening of fun!"

The Get-Acquainted Dance in September was the first social event of the school year. Pupils of the seventh and eighth grades, as well as those in high school, were invited. A thoroughly enjoyable evening was had by the many people who attended.

"Our next selection will be..."

"The Mexican Hat Rock!"

"Ring around the rosie?"

"Bottoms up!"

CHRISTMAS DANCE

"Jerry and Al spin some platters. "

"Tom Keene takes over. "

"Six happy Seniors. "

"The evening was enjoyed by all. "

"Johnny Crowe had a good time. "

"Even Mr. Paulus came! "

MASSACHUSETTS JUNIOR CLASSICAL LEAGUE STATE CONVENTION

The Distinguished Guests.

Yum! Yum!

Uggh! **?&!!!

Speaking with the Gods!

SENIOR CLASS PLAY

The Senior Play was a great success this year.

The players as well as the stage crew went through a terrific amount of work to put on the production.

The profits made a good part of our money towards the class trip. We hope you enjoyed it.

"Dr. Pricket and Louise chat."

"Don't get excited, Mrs. Barret!"

"I'VE got to win!"

"Mrs. Grant scolds Hildegard."

"Joe, George and Glen, critics?"

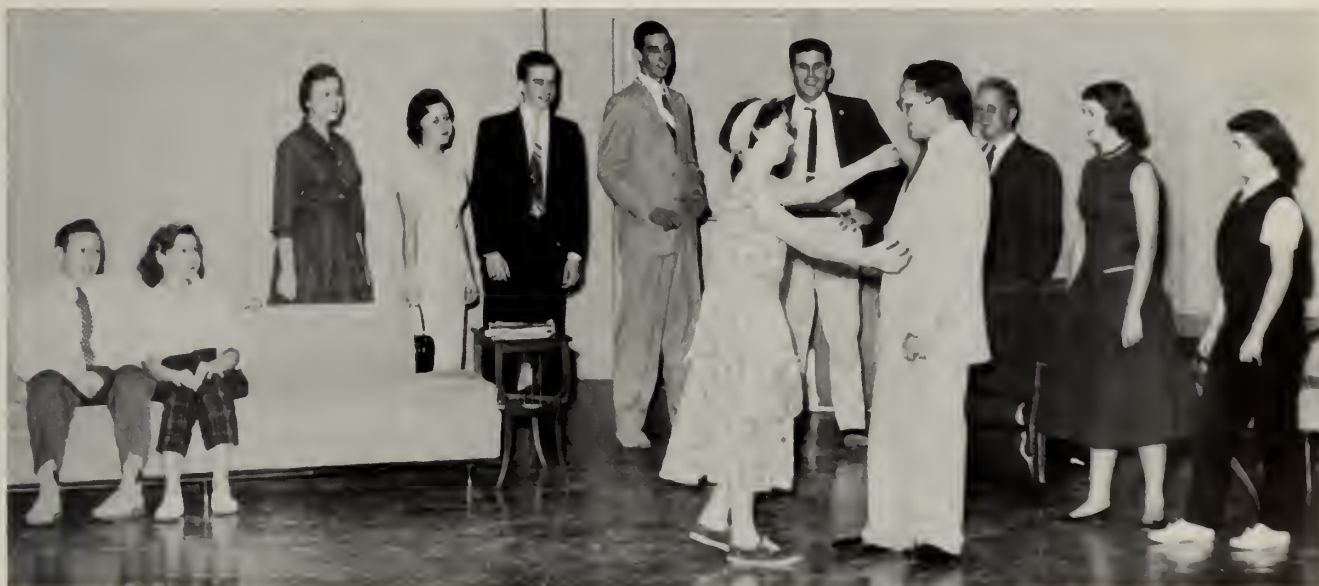

"Grrr!"

"Glen and George?"

"Mr. Paulus steps in to give a few words of advice."

"Oh! Mr. Pricket! Really!!!"

SENIOR SUPPER

Joe and Joe, our ushers.

Two, please!

Enjoying yourselves, folks?

Seconds? Anyone?

"Getting ready behind the scenes."

"Paul Tausek acts as narrator."

"The Junior Class Madonna."

"The Glee Club adds to the spectacle."

"Johnny Crowe gives a trumpet solo."

CHRISTMAS PAGEANT

This year's Christmas pageant was a huge success, although it was not as large as in previous years. Each class put on a madonna scene, that of the senior class being the most elaborate. The senior class has willed the pageant to the class of 1963.

"Changing the scenery."

"Phyllis Morin gives a blast."

"The Freshman class madonna."

"The Senior class madonna."

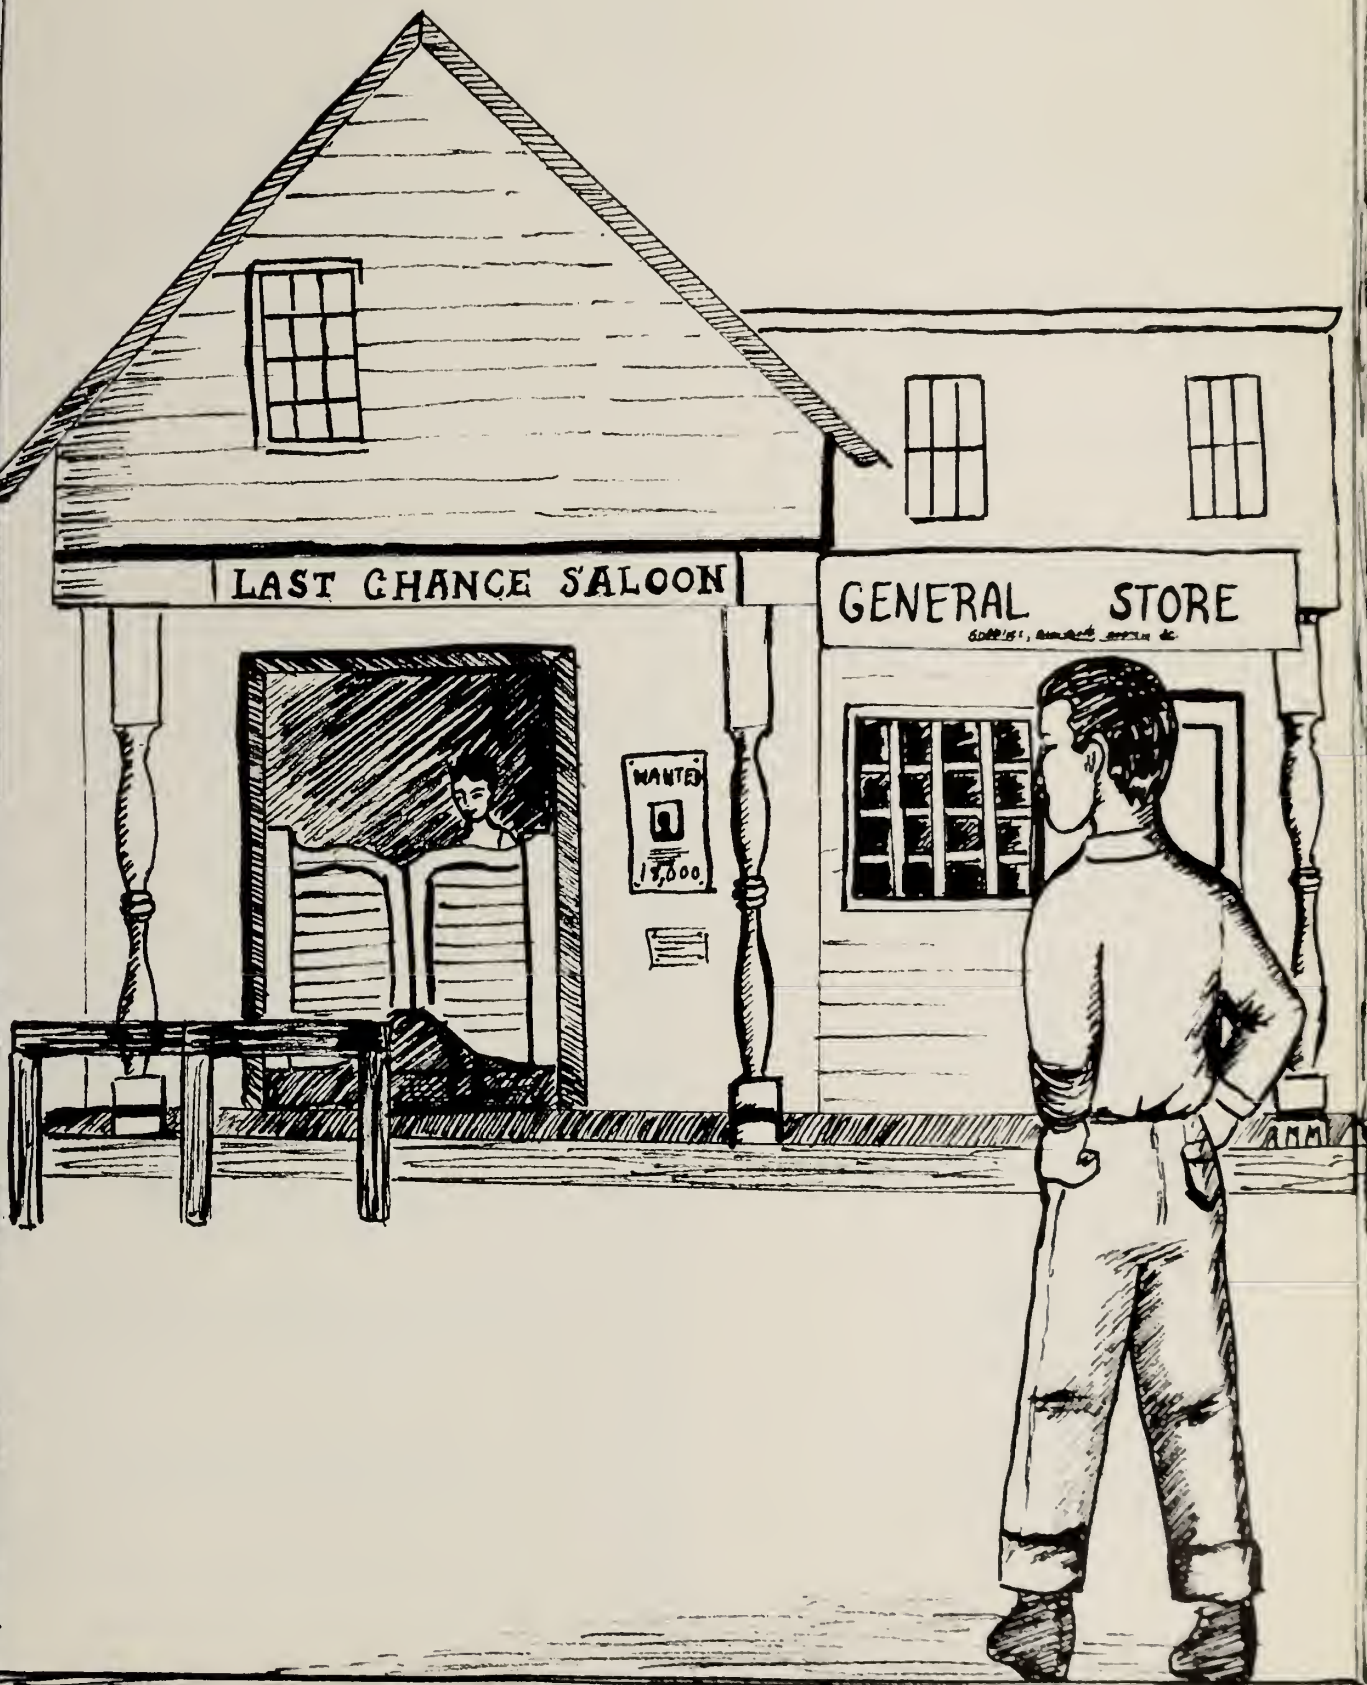

David Gunner sings a solo."

"Another view of the seniors."
